Robert Stall, Chief Deputy Public Defender, stated that the department feels there is no merit in Ms. Beebee-Doss' allegation because staff from OIA is and always has been objective with the department. ## SELECTION PROCESS

Appeals

14. Dawn Beebee-Doss, Deputy Public Defender III, appealing her non-selection for the classification of Deputy Public Defender IV by the Office of the Public Defender. (See also Item No. 6 above.)

RECOMMENDATION: Accept appeal as timely. Deny request based on merit.

Ms. Beebee-Doss addressed the Commission regarding the alleged improper process utilized for the classification of Deputy Public Defender IV. She asserts that there was an unfair playing field and requests that the Commission set a hearing to review the criteria utilized in the selection process regarding the promotion of DPD IVs.

Robert Stall, Deputy Public Defender, stated that the main issue was whether the process was done in a fair and appropriate manner. Standard Civil Service procedures were followed.

Regarding the issue of timeliness, Mr. Stall suggests that the appeal of Ms. Beebee Doss, as well as the appeals of Steven Binder and Susan McInerney (Agenda Items 15/16 below), were untimely by more than 3 weeks.

Commissioner Bailey clarified that there were two issues before the Commission. Should the Commission determine that the appeal(s) were untimely, then the issue on merit would be moot.

Motion by Newman to bifurcate this Agenda item into 1) timeliness and 2) merit; seconded by Fisher. Carried.

Agenda Items 14, 15 and 16 are addressed at this point. Eugene Iredale, representing Steven Binder addressed the Commission regarding the timeliness issue as well as the merit of the appeal. Mr. Iredale explained the calculation of the appropriate time limits. Ms. Beebee-Doss concurred with Mr. Iredale's presentation, and added that the appellants relied upon the advice of Dennis Hayes, Esq., their Union advisor.

Susan McInerney next approached the podium. She reiterated that the appellants relied upon and followed the advice of their Union Attorney. She also added that on December 1, 2006, she sent an e-mail to Carlos Arauz, Director of DHR, to advise him of her appeal.

Robert Stall countered that sending an e-mail to DHR, does not take the place of filing an appeal with the Civil Service Commission. Mr. Stall did, however, agree that the Union Attorney did advise the appellants regarding an appropriate time line in which to file their appeal.

Motion by Newman to approve staff recommendation that the appeals are timely; seconded by Casillas. Carried.

Still addressing Agenda Items 14, 15 and 16:

Eugene Iredale, Esq., on behalf of Steven Binder (Agenda Item 15) alleged that the attorneys who have specialized (niche) practices were not given the appropriate weight, and therefore treated unfairly in the selection process.

Susan McInerney (Agenda Item No. 16) requested that all three appellants be treated individually with regard to the merits of their Rule X complaints. Ms. McInerney highlighted unique facts pertaining to her appeal. She alleges that attorneys in specialized practices were never given any notice from the Department that niche practices would hold them back from promotional opportunities. She claimed that the Department promotes on favoritism and cronyism, not merit. She requests a hearing so that complete facts can be ascertained.

Ms. Beebee-Doss requested a hearing regarding the merits of the selection process due to alleged unfair interviewing and also facts relating to her health.

Robert Stall, on behalf of the Department, supported the position that the selection process was conducted in a fair and equitable manner.

Regarding Appellant Dawn Beebee-Doss:

Motion by Newman to approve staff recommendation to deny a hearing based on merit; seconded by Casillas. Carried.

OTHER MATTERS

Performance Appraisal

17. Michael Porter, Social Worker I, Health and Human Services Agency, requesting the sealing of a Performance Appraisal for the period June 10, 2005 to June 9, 2006. (See also Item No. 5 above.)

RECOMMENDATION: Grant Request

Mr. Porter alleged that timelines were violated in the appeal process.

Commissioner Newman clarified that the issue before the Commission is the question of what harm was done to Mr. Porter by the alleged delays in the appeal process. Mr. Porter replied that he has suffered depression and anxiety for approximately 6 months.

Sr. Deputy County Counsel, Dennis Floyd explained that the actual Performance Appraisal was completed timely, and that the issue before the Commission involves the Performance Appraisal appeal process. He added that four months is not an unusual time line for an appeal. Mr. Floyd added that the appeal process was flawed due to the initial meeting delay and that any harm to Mr. Porter has not risen to the level of sealing the appraisal.

Motion by Newman to deny request to seal; seconded by Casillas. Carried.

There was discussion among the Commissioners with regard To the manner in which to appropriately resolve Commission concerns about issuing timely performance appraisals.
